

UPDATE: HOW NEW LEGISLATION AND REGULATIONS HELP YOU MAXIMIZE PPP LOAN FORGIVENESS

SFACA, IAQA, SWACCA, Florida Irrigation Society and the Roofing Contractors Association of South Florida invite you to participate in this webinar based on recent favorable Federal legislation and regulations. For members and guests that have applied for or received a loan through the CARES Act's Paycheck Protection Program, this webinar covers what you need to know to maximize loan forgiveness.

WEBINAR - THURSDAY, JUNE 25 AT 3:00 PM

REGISTER HERE

Rich Shavell, CPA, CVA, CCIFP

A leader in the South Florida construction financial community, Rich is a four-time winner of South Florida Business Journal Awards for Accountants in the Construction, Tax & Real Estate Categories.

As President of Shavell & Company, P.A., Rich helps contractors of all sizes with financial statements; tax compliance and planning, business consulting and other specialized financial services focused on helping contractors and clients "make more money and keep more of it."

Shavell & Company, P.A.
Click Here to Download CV

What to expect from this program:

- Impact of the latest Legislation and Regulations on Contractors
- Whether Electing to Shrink the 'Covered Period' to the current eight weeks or go with 24 weeks
- Understand the Application for Forgiveness to be filed with your Lender
- Update: what we now know about Qualifying Costs
- New Timeline for the Forgiveness Process
- When will I know, with certainty, that my PPP Loan is, in fact, Forgiven
- Implications for your Company's Financial Statements
- Q&A

Questions? Contact Stacey Miller at director.sfaca@gmail.com or call 954-281-5106

South Florida Air Conditioning Contractors Association